

WOOD MANUFACTURING STUDIES

ELECTIVE
SUBJECT

Year 10

Course Outline: The course is focused on timber and the processes used when working with it. Over the course of two years, students will make projects using a range of techniques and processes.

Learning Experiences:

- Workshop projects
 - Skill Development
 - Machine and hand operations
 - Understanding of Safety
 - Design exercises
-

Duration: 1 year.

Assessment:

- Workshop projects
 - Design folios.
-

Certification: School End of Semester Reports.

Commitment: In order to succeed in this subject, students must complete all classwork, homework and assessment as required.

Cost: refer to the schedule of fees

Course Requirements: A laptop that meets school minimum specifications. Stationery items as per book-list. Steel capped boots.

Links to Careers: Basic requirement for most jobs and further study.

Wood Manufacturing Studies provides hands-on practical experience with processing Timber products as well as developing problem solving skills. The subject is useful for learning the basics required for a wide range of careers in the building and manufacturing industries. This is also a very useful subject for developing general skills for hobby or home use.